Meghalaya envisages setting up solar park to improve power generation

Shillong , Oct 11 : State Power Minister Comingone Ymbon has informed that Meghalaya Government has envisaged development of solar power park in the State and already taken up development of two solar parks of capacity 10 MW each. He was speaking at the 18th North Eastern Regional Power Committee (NERPC) Meeting held on Wednesday at the State Convention Centre, Shillong under the aegis of the Meghalaya Energy Corporation Limited (MeECL). The Minister further said that the transmission sector in the State was being strengthened and expanded through various schemes, including North Eastern Region Power System Improvement Project (NERPSIP). Ymbon informed that the present generation capacity in the state was enhanced to 354.7 MW, with an addition of 40 MW after commissioning of the New Umtru Hydro Electric Project on July 1, 2017. He informed the gathering that power requirement of the state was primarily met from the State owned generating company, Meghalaya Power Generation Corporation Limited (MePGC).

Quacquarelli Symonds Recognizes SRM University 4Star University

New Delhi , Oct 11 : SRM University has been awarded a Four Star rating by Quacquarelli Symonds ('QS'), a leading global higher education company. Only two universities in India can boast of this unique distinction. This Rating brings SRM in top 125 Institution Universities with 4 Star or more out of 275 Institutes across the world. QS is best known for publishing - the world's most popular university ranking system. In addition to ranking, QS also carries out QS Stars rating which allows students to get a wider picture of an institution's qualities, looking at everything from the employability of graduates, to sports facilities and community engagement. The QS Stars evaluated 275 institutions in 45 countries against over 50 different indicators, and awards universities between one and five + stars over eight wider fields, as well as an overall rating. Commenting on the achievement Mr. Satya, XX SRM University said, "It's an honour to see our university being recognized on a global stage. To be named as one of the best is the testament to the high quality of education we offer and high caliber of graduates we produce. We believe that this recognition is a result of constant hard work and determination of our students and teachers and we will continue to do so." "Ashwin Fernandes from QS Rating said "I am very happy today to announce that SRM University has achieved the 4 star in QS rating system which is a very rigorous in-depth measure of quality and excellence of educational institutions. It has about 8 categories and 50 indicators. It involves rigorous submission and verification of data and SRM has met the standards what we have set for QS star and becoming the second university in India to have this prestigious 4 star status and across the world there are just a few hundred universities that are star rated which means that institution has undergone very strict evaluation and puts SRM on the Global path and help in gaining in international recognition. Star Rating is all about helping student making life changing decision" The system evaluates universities across a wide range of important performance indicators as set against pre-established international standards. By covering a broader range of criteria than any world ranking exercise, QS Stars™ shines a light on both the excellence and the diversity of the rated institution. SRM University went under a rigorous audit by QS where University is evaluated under different criteria i.e. 1. Teaching 2. Employability 3. Research 4. Internationalization 5. Facilities 6. Innovation 7. Inclusiveness and 8. Specialist program. Based on the above parameters QS awards an overall rating also. Out of these 8 parameters SRM University has been awarded the maximum 5 Star rating on Teaching, employability and Inclusiveness

Siliguri witnesses largest turnout and support for Yatra

Siliguri , Oct 11 : The Bharat Yatra, launched by Nobel Peace Laureate KailashSatyarthi on 11 September, entered the state of West Bengal, reaching Siliguri on 27th September, the seven-teenth day of the 35-day long march across the country to build unprecedented awareness on combating child sexual abuse and trafficking. Within seventeen days of the launch, this march has already mobilized and has been joined by over 55,000 children, youth and working professionals, with the largest turnout in Siliguri of nearly 1,000 people, who demanded for a stop to child sexual abuse, called for better laws in the country and pledged to protect the children of India from these heinous acts. The Yatra marchers called upon the youth of the country to step up and fight for children across India. They urged people of Siliguri to strive towards building a safe childhood and a safe India. Ever since its launch, Bharat Yatra has been drawing enormous support from citizens across India, including Amitabh Bachchan who tweeted to his fans to support the Yatra. Earlier, Union Minister for Shipping and Finance Mr PonRadhakrishnan had flagged off the Yatra from Kanyakumari along with Mr Satyarthi. In Trivandrum, Kerala Chief Minister PinarayiVijayan assured whole hearted support from his government in eradicating the menace of child sexual abuse and trafficking. Prime Minister NarendraModi had sent a personal letter to KailashSatyarthi extending his support to the Yatra, which will cover 11000 kilometres across 22 States, including Tamil Nadu. Some of the key cities it covers include Chennai, Bangalore, Hyderabad, Mumbai, Guwahati, Bhopal, Jaipur, Srinagar among others. At Kanniyakumari during the flag off Mr Satyarthi had declared, "I will not rest till children of this country are not safe. I am not going to stop fighting if the raping and abuse do not stop. I cannot sleep in peace until we win our war against rape and abuse. This moral epidemic haunts our nation, and it is time we fight against it, together." Re-iterating his mission behind launching the Bharat Yatra, he said "Why am I marching? Because my children are being raped. I refuse to accept that eight children go missing and two are raped every hour. Each time if a single child is in danger, India is in danger. Bharat Yatra is to make India safe again for our children." KailashSatyarthi has been campaigning for the freedom, safety and security for children across the globe for the past 36 years. His Nobel Peace Prize (2014) was for his continuous efforts and struggle for the rights children. The Yatra is the launch of the three-year campaign against child rape and child sexual abuse which is aimed at increasing awareness and reporting of the cases, strengthening intuitional response including medical health and compensations, ensuring protection for victims and witnesses during trials and increasing convictions of child sexual abuse in a time bound manner.
