

PDF's Mawlai unit dissolved over poll ticket issue

Shillong, Dec 6 : The leaders of Mawlai 2017-Social Service Organization (M:17-SSO) that had extended their support to People's Democratic Front (PDF) by forming the PDF Zonal Committee, Mawlai Constituency, on October 19 has dissolved the party unit in Mawlai taunting the party as a childish and foolish party.

Informing here on Wednesday, L S Lyngdoh, general secretary of M:17-SSO alleged the double standard maintained by the party leaders following media reports that another candidate was also vying for the party ticket, the party unit in Mawlai sought clarification from the party heads as he asserted that Teibor Pathaw was projected as party candidate from Mawlai constituency.

He said, "In a letter to us, the central body leaders said that the party ticket is undecided and that the allotment of ticket is monitored by Central Election Committee (CEC) of the party."

Meanwhile, Pathaw claimed that he was being assured by PN Syiem, who is proposed to be the PDF leader, that the PDF ticket for Mawlai will go to Pathaw.

Pathaw, while folding the flag of PDF muttered, "It is a party without any foundation."

Furthermore, Lyngdoh said that relationship with the party leaders turned sour after the central body leadership did not make any communication to the party members in Mawlai and membership forms were not even distributed.

Rani Kurbah, working president of women's wing, Pynsuklang Hynniewtrep has also tendered their resignation to president of women's wing, Grace Kharpuri and president youth wing, Hamlet Dohling respectively.

Deborah urges youths not to rely on quotas, job reservations

Tura, Dec 6 : Meghalaya elementary education and literacy minister Deborah Marak on Wednesday inaugurated the workshop organised for civil services aspirants from Garo Hills by the East Garo Hills District Administration under the Chief Minister's Career Guidance and Counselling Programme.

The idea of the workshop was to familiarize the students on different scopes and opportunities in civil services apart from Indian Administrative Service (IAS), Indian Police Service (IPS), Indian Revenue Service (IRS), etc.

A group of around 180 plus select students from different institutions of Garo hills converged at Williamnagar in East Garo Hills for the two days mentoring session with D Shankar from Shankar IAS Academy in Chennai and other resource persons including DC of East Garo Hills, Ram Kumar and sub-divisional officer (civil) of Daddengre, Swapnil Timbe.

Speaking during the programme, Deborah Marak lauded the administration for organizing the programme in Williamnagar, where students due to lack of exposure and information are not competing in such prestigious examinations.

"Our students from Garo hills are too much dependent on state level government jobs, which are saturated, when there is ocean of opportunities, what we need is to identify and prepare ourselves to achieve it", she added.

Marak also asked the students not to be satisfied with "quotas" and "job reservations" and explore their vistas to prepare for prestigious examinations and lucrative career in public services.

East Garo Hills Deputy Commissioner, Ram Kumar said that through this workshop the administration aims to make the local students realise their potentials and motivate them to prepare adequately for civil services examinations. "We are making an attempt to shortlist candidates to train them further for an extensive coaching", he added

Meanwhile, Timbe and Shankar gave lessons on preparation for civil services and insight on different examinations. They also interacted with students and took up questions, which are related to preparation for a career in public services.

Cong will win 40 seats, mark my word: Mukul

Shillong, Dec 6 : Putting up a brave front in the wake of resignation of the state's power minister, the chief minister Dr Mukul Sangma on Wednesday claimed that the ruling Congress would get close to 40 seats (out of total 60) in the upcoming Assembly polls. "Mark my word," he said

Sangma also lambasted the deserters of Congress party challenging them to resign from the post of MLA too if they have the courage.

"If somebody has the courage, let them resign from the post of MLA," Mukul Sangma said while responding to queries of journalists on the sidelines of the laying of foundation of the Shillong Medical College and Hospital here on Wednesday

The statement came from the Chief Minister after Comingone Ymbon resigned from the post of Power Minister earlier this week.

Apart from Ymbon, other senior Congress leaders like Prestone Tynsong and Rowell Lyngdoh and others are set to join NPP.

Slamming the deserters, Sangma said that the problem with the deserters was they were not loyal to the people who elected them as an MLA from a party besides they have betrayed thousands of Congress workers in the state.

Asked about the accusations that Chief Minister's alleged interference in departments hold by others, Mukul Sangma said that as per the procedure, when the Minister was not in station, the file of important nature would be put to the Chief Minister.

"We don't wait for people who don't come and attend the office. Office of a Minister is important office and it is an office of decision maker and policy maker. The greater interest of the people has to be seen," Sangma said.

Castigating the Power Minister, who accused the Chief Minister of intervening into the Power department, Sangma said, "What is the situation in power. Is it not bleeding?"

"When the Meghalaya Energy Corporation (MeECL) requires and Minister is not there. Should I not call a meeting? How much money is going on waste daily which is preventable, because of interest repayment and because you are delaying some decision," an angry Sangma added.

Reiterating that the post of Minister is very responsible post, Sangma said that an important post was not for someone who often goes Shillong-Kolkata-Kolkata-Shillong

"File an RTI and see how many times, Prestone has gone to Kolkata. What job do they have in Kolkata? Who is waiting for them there?" he added, adding that that the post of the Minister is vested with the responsibility of the future of the state.

"It is a serious business and if the Chief Ministers does not understand the seriousness of this business, the state will go to the dogs and I will not allow the state to go to the dogs when I am holding the responsibility of the Chief Minister," he added.

Chief Minister also asserted that he did not regret giving Cabinet berth to Comingone Ymbon since people know that he was given an opportunity and a platform but still he left.

When asked drawn to about the accusation made by political parties of him being corrupt, he said that his job was to drag them to legal battle and some have even withdrawn their statement, adding that people who don't have issues are showing their frustration and anger through such accusations.

Shillong Medical College to be set up in PPP mode

Shillong, Dec 6 : The process for the construction of Meghalaya's first medical college has started with Chief Minister, Mukul Sangma laying the foundation for Shillong Medical College and Hospital here on Wednesday. The Medical College and Hospital will be built on a PPP mode.

Speaking on the occasion, Mukul Sangma lamented that finding land was a big challenge for which many Government projects were often delayed in the state even as he added that government had adopted a new strategy of giving Category C and D jobs to people who donate their land for government projects.

Sangma also said that the government has adopted a new strategy to provide treatment to the people and health department has been asked to come up with a proposal with ideas on creating beautiful medical infrastructures in the state where patients would not feel home sick and they would like to stay in those hospitals for full treatment which sometimes require months for critical disease.

In addition, the patients would be looked after by friendly medical staffs who will be given specialised training. Chief Minister, was also not happy at the way, treatment was provided to patients in institutes like AIIMS and even NEIGRIHMS where patients are asked to come after a week for various tests due to increase footfall and this is the reason, the state should have enough doctors to look after the patients.
