Congress struggles to find candidates after leaders exit

Shillong, Jan 11: The poll challenge is getting harder for the Congress in Meghalaya where even finding suitable candidates in many constituencies, including in the city, has become a daunting task for the grand old party. The Pradesh Election Committee will meet on Thursday and the day after for selecting candidates for the 60 seats. But it was heard on the grapevine that not many are keen on opting for Congress ticket.

The situation is worse in the Khasi-Jaintia Hills where legislators, former ministers and senior party leaders have left in droves. The impact of anti-incumbency is less severe in Garo Hills that has fewer seats, most of which are under the control of Chief Minister Mukul Sangma and members of his family.

The party does not have prominent candidates in Pynthorumkhrah, represented by AL Hek, and Raliang held by Comingone Ymbon.

For Pynursla (Prestone Tynsong) and Mawhati (Julius Dorphang) too there are no good candidates, party insiders told The Shillong Times.

Also, three senior leaders — DD Lapang, RC Laloo and Roshan Warjri — have opted out of the electoral race. While Lapang has backed Meralborn Syiem from Nongpoh, JHADC chief Andrew Shullai is the Congress's face in Jowai.

However, the recent development in the JHADC where the party may lose majority after the exit of five party MDCs may affect the Congress.

Sonowal takes initiative for revival of bell metal industry

Guwahati , Jan 11 : Assam government has taken an initiative to revive the traditional bell metal industry in the state at the instance of the Minister Chief Sarbananda Sonowal who chaired a high level meeting of the Industry and Micro, Small and Medium Enterprise (MSME) Departments top officials at Brahmaputra State Guest House on Thursday for bringing about revival and stimulating growth of traditional industry.

The meeting discussed about various ways to preserve and develop the indigenous industry through different measures keeping with the modern industrial practices. The meeting also discussed about methods of encouraging the artisans engaged in the bell metal industry so that they can be enabled to earn a decent livelihood through financial gains. The chief minister also directed the top officials of Industry and MSME Department for preparing a roadmap in this regard in consultation with the local artisans.He instructed the officials to take action for providing healthcare facilities to the artisans and also to gain insight into their grievances regarding raw material, furnace etc., so that solutions could be found. The chief minister also directed for taking help from institutions such as IIT for getting technical advice and holding consultations with technical experts for modernising and infusing new design elements into the products.

The chief minister also issued direction to the Industry Department to conduct a survey about the potential demand of the bell metal products in the international market and instructed the department for taking action to develop the skills of the local artisans for enabling their products to gain popularity in the global mar-

He instructed for taking local artisans on board in this endeavour and directed the Circle Officer of Sarthebari Revenue Circle, who was present in the meeting, to play the role of coordinator in holding discussions with the stakeholders of the bell metal industry. Sarthebari is considered the hub of the age-old bell metal industry in the state.

GNLA action commander and trusted aide of Sohan shot dead

Shillong, Jan 11: The rebel behind a string of killings and abductions who spread fear in the remote villages of Garo Hills been, was shot dead by Meghalaya police commandos in a dawn raid in the jungles of East Garo Hills. The killing of Matchallang M Sangma alias Vietnam in a jungle encounter at Bawe Duragre village, at 10 kms aerial distance from Williamnagar, is being seen by police as a devastating blow to the operations of the GNLA rebel outfit.
